Over 9,000 Greenbelters Eligible to Vote In Presidential Primary Tuesday, May 8

by Elaine Skolnik

Next Tuesday, May 8, Greenbelt's Republicans and Democrats will be trekking to the polls to vote in the Primary Election. About 9,513 persons are eligible to cast votes in the city's four precincts. (See chart on page 7.) However, 1,223 Independents (Unaffiliated) will wait until the General Election on November 6 to vote for their favorite candidates.

Major contenders for the Democratic nomination for President are Gary Hart, Jesse L. Jackson and Walter F. Mondale. Although Alan Cranston, John Glenn, Ernest Hollings and George McGovern have withdrawn from the race, their withdrawal occurred too late to have their names removed from the Maryland ballot. Another Democratic presidential candidate running is Lyndon H. LaRouche.

On the Republican side, Ronald Reagan is unopposed.

In the Congressional race for the Fifth District, two-term incumbent Democrat Steny Hoyer has two challengers — Lawrence E. Keval and Craig E. Ransom. The Republican contest will see John E. Ritchie, Kenneth Michael Robinson and John Eugene Sellner vying for the nomination.

In the selection of two Judges for the 7th Judicial Circuit Court, sitting judges Arthur M. Monty Ahalt, Jr. and G. R. Hovey Johnson find themselves in the unusual position of having to go out on the hustings. Pitted against them is State's Attorney Arthur A. Marshall, Jr. As a general rule sitting judges do not face challengers in the primary or general election. After having been appointed by the governor for their initial terms, judges run on their records for subsequent terms.

Delegates

Republican voters will also choose three delegates, representing the First Congressional District, to attend the National Convention to be held in Dallas August 20-23.

Democratic voters will once aed by registered Democrats in an open post-primary caucus in their respective Congressional Districts. This procedure has been changed. In the May 8 primary Maryland's Democratic voters will select a majority of the delegates to the convention. The national party now requires that nearly half the delegates be women.

Greenbelt Candidates

In the 5th Congressional District Democrats may vote for no more than three female delegates and alternate and for no more than four male delegates and alternate. Two Greenbelt residents, Suzanne Plogman, 2 Northway, and Thomas X. White, Woodland Way, are running as delegates.

Plogman, a Mondale supporter, is among 24 women competing for a delegate slot. A 30-year old resident and community activist, she has been named county "Young Careerist of the Year" for 1984. A special education teacher at Northwestern Senior High School, she is chair of the Prince Georges County Commission for Women.

Plogman is also a member of the Prince Georges County Educator's Association, the Eleanor and Franklin Roosevelt Democratic Club and the Greenbelt Community Relations Advisory Board. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Greenbelt Cultural Arts Center and is Public Relations Chairperson for Save Our Services Committee in Greenbelt.

White, who is serving his sixth term as a member of the Greenbelt City Council, supports the candidacy of Gary Hart. White is active in local, county, state and national organizations dealing with municipal and environmental affairs. He is chairman of

PRIMARY - MAY 8

Primary Day 1984 is Tuesday, May 8. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at Greenbelt's four polling places — Center School (third precinct); St. Hugh's School (sixth precinct); Springhill Lake School (eighth precinct); and Eleanor Roosevelt High School (thirteenth precinct). The latter also includes registered voters who live outside the city's borders — Chelsea Woods Condominium, Brae Brook Village Apartments, Goddard Space Village and Hunting Ridge. Registered in the four precincts are 9,513 persons.

Only registered Democrats and Republicans may vote in the primary. Those who decline party affiliations may vote only in nonpartisan elections. Greenbelt's Unaffiliated will thus be ineligible to vote on May 8.

The Prince Georges County Board of Election Supervisors suggests that voters come to the polls between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. to avoid delay and congestion.

Police Budget Asks Two New Officers

by Mavis Fletcher

The 1984/85 proposed Police Department budget, reviewed by city council members at a work session on April 11, provides for expenditure of about $100,000 more for public safety than will have been spent in the current year. This $100,000 includes funds for three additional members of the Police Department, two patrolmen and one civilian communications specialist.

In addition to the $100,000 increase in the public safety budget, the proposed budget includes $50,000 in a reserve fund for implementation of whatever findings may result from a study of the Police Department urged by a group of citizens last fall. The cost of the study itself is being funded out of the current year's budget.

The question of the size of the department and whether two additional patrolmen is enough was raised from several directions: Chief William T. Lane said that in his budget request he had asked for four officers and had based his request on the growth of the city, particularly in the commercial areas, and on the wishes of the citizens as expressed in a survey of voters taken at the last election. Deputy Chief Frank Hutson said that he considered an increase necessary, probably four to five officers being needed.

Cpl. M. D. Sappington, president of the local chapter of the Fraternal Order of Police, said the FOP felt that an increase of nine officers, including two K9 units, is needed. Richard Cripe, speaking for the Greenbelt Crime Prevention Committee, which is a city council advisory body, called for a department of 40 officers (an increase of 10 over present strength). The committee based their recommendation on: 1) Uniform Crime Reporting System figures which indicate a manning factor of 2.1 officers per 1000 population in cities similar to Greenbelt; 2) high daytime population of Greenbelt because of the commercial centers; 3) Greenbelt's location between two major urban population centers; 4) probable understatement of the city's population because the census failed to include many University of Maryland students who live in the city. Dorothy Pyles, Crime Prevention Committee member and active participant in the Greenbriar Phase III Neighborhood Watch, also endorsed an increase in department size based on the planned increase in residential housing in the city.

These recommendations came in the face of crime statistics presented by City Manager James K. Giese which show crime has decreased by 8% in the first

by Bill Rowland

The city's Advisory Planning Board (APB) has recommended that city council oppose an application for rezoning of a part of the Tidler tract, located south of Windsor Green and Glen Ora, until major traffic improvements are under construction that would bring traffic flow to at least a minimally acceptable level of service at all intersections along Greenbelt Road from Southway to Cipriano Road. Council received the APB report during its regular meeting on April 23, and is expected to hear citizen views and decide the city's position during its next regular meeting on May 14.

The contract-purchaser of the 83.4-acre part of the Tidler tract has applied for rezoning of this land just outside the city's boundaries from Rural Residential (R-R, 1.85 dwelling units per acre) to Residential-Townhouse (R-T, 8 dwelling units per acre). The requested zoning would allow up to 667 units on the property, and the developer has put forth a concept plan showing 592 townhouses. An alternative being considered by the developer proposes a mix of uses including 362 townhouse units, 16 English basement units, 46 detached houses, and 41 townhouses to be used as offices.

In its report, the APB discusses at length alternative rezoning categories that would lessen the density of development on the land and considers in particular the needs of the city and areas adjacent to it for additional single-family detached homes. The board notes that present developments under construction in Greenbelt will result in a total of about 8,650 dwelling units within the city, with 56% of them apartments, 28% townhouses, 10% condominium, and only 6% detached housing. The Board points to two major tracts identified in the 1970 Master Plan for single-family housing that have been forever lost to that use: the 37-acre Schrom Hills Park just south of the city, and the Eleanor Roosevelt/Green Holly Woods tract, where the high school removes part of the land from housing development, and R-T townhouse rezoning has been granted for the remainder.

The APB in its report takes note of the developer's contention that the land's steep contours are best suited for townhouse development. The report confirms that the Urban Design Division of Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission has in effect agreed with the developer. APB does not offer its members' views on this issue. The report further comments on the "track record" of the petitioner, citing a development called Woodstream "as evidence of a quality project."

Ultimately, APB cites traffic

Hikers/Bikers Welcome In Annual Ride-A-Bike

Hikers as well as bikers are welcome to participate in Sunday's annual Ride-A-Bike for the Retarded. Mayor Pro-tem Richard Pilski will cut the ribbon at the Youth Center at 10 a.m. to start the first group off.

The participant bringing in the most money in pledges will win a 10 speed bicycle. The Greenbelt school with the greatest participation will receive a trophy.

Anyone interested in offering a pledge for a participant should call Eileen Labukas (474-9486) or the Youth Center office (474-6878).

congestion as its greatest immediate concern and joins the NCPPC's Transportation Planning Division in recommending denial of the rezoning application. That Division, in an April 9 memorandum, labelled the proposed rezoning as "being premature with regard to needed transportation improvements."

APB summarizes the finding of a Greenhorne and O'Mara traffic study, done recently for the developer, that even with planned and assumed improvements, this and other possible development in the area would result in traffic level of service "E" at the Parkway-Greenbelt Road-Greenway Center intersection. APB also comments on the problems that result when development is approved on the basis of traffic improvements "which then get delayed, are not funded or for other reasons are not built." APB wants to see the needed traffic improvements actually under construction in this case.

In conclusion, APB tells council that "Once these improvements are under construction, the board would consider some mixed use development (for the Tidler tract) such as a cluster development in the R-80 or R-55 zone with less density than the present proposal and a significant amount of detached housing."

Women's Soccer

by Sue Cornelius

Greenbelt fields a team in the Columbia Women's Soccer League, thanks to the generous sponsorship of Greenbelt American Legion Post 136. Players vary in age, occupation and soccer experience, but all are having fun and learning more about soccer. Despite two losses, the team is confident that continued work and practice will bring a victory. Bill Barron, Jr., is the coach, and Barb Adams is assistant coach. In last week's game, Pattie Farley played excellent fullback, and Jane Cosner looked great at center halfback. Dale Scoville does a great job as goalie. Theresa Downs scored both of Greenbelt's goals, with Debbie Reese and Barb Adams helping out on the front line.

Lions to Sponsor White Cane Days

The Greenbelt Lions Club is again sponsoring White Cane Days to help the blind. The Days are scheduled for Friday, May 4 and Saturday, May 5 as well as the following weekend, May 11 and May 12.

Lions will be stationed at the Center (Roosevelt Mall) and other shopping malls in the city.

THANKS

To the Editor:

The members of the family of Ethel Martin wish to express our gratitude to our friends and neighbors in Greenbelt for the many expressions of sympathy at the time of our bereavement. We are particularly grateful to the Greenbelt Fire Department and Rescue Squad for their kindness, but we also wish to thank the many who expressed their sympathy by sending food to the home or flowers to the funeral and to those who comforted us by their visits and by their cards and notes.

It was all very helpful and we are grateful.

In addition, I want to thank GHI for the support they gave and in particular Mary Ann Baker for distributing the trash bags. Utopia Bake Sale

Proceeds from the monthly Bake Sale held in front of the Utopia Theatre are an important part of the Greenbelt Cultural Arts Center budget, reveals John Ward, Treasurer of the Center.

May 12 is the next Saturday date for the sale, and supporters of the Center who cannot otherwise become involved in Center activities are encouraged to bake something extra with their weekly dessert baking and donate it to the sale, which runs from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Donations are tax-deductible, and each donor receives a ticket to a Greenbelt Players presentation. The next play will be "The Diary of Anne Frank." Those who would like to be regular donors (every month or two or three) are asked to leave their names with Eileen Peterson, 345-2454, evenings. "Spontaneous donations on the day of the sale are gratefully accepted," comments Peterson.

GHI Home Financing

To the Editor:

At the GHI Annual Membership Meeting on May 16, 1984, members will be asked to consider many motions. Among them are two proposed bylaw amendments and one proposed resolution that will give GHI the authority to enter into an agreement with the National Consumer Cooperative Bank, to set up a cooperative mortgage company. This mortgage company would provide significant funds for resale and refinancing of our homes. For example, we anticipate at least $2.8 million would be available to GHI in the first year.

For many years, GHI has had difficulty in assuring adequate sources of financing. For long stretches of time, no money was available. The fact that the cooperative has maintained its viability throughout these periods is a tribute to its basic stability. However, availability of funds remains a serious concern.

Setting up a mortgage company has several other advantages in addition to providing funds for resale and refinancing. We will receive fees for processing loans. We will receive patronage refunds from profits. Our NCCB rehab loan payment requirements will be reduced by an amount over twice that of our investment in the co-op mortgage company. And most importantly, we will be creating a stable source of capital for our member's financing needs for years to come.

Greenbelt's 50th Anniversary Committee will be putting together a photographic slide show depicting Greenbelt's history over the past half century. The purpose of the show will be educational, to inform new residents, school children and others of their historical community roots. Another purpose is to use the show to foster interest and participation among members of the community in anniversary celebrations and to become a focal point around which fundraising activities will emanate.

The committee is actively seeking photographs of "old" Greenbelt showing the city under construction, visiting government officials, early community-wide events. The committee would like to have pictures of such places as Schrom Airport, Toaping Castle and farmhouses which show the area before construction of the city occurred. A professional photographer will copy the photographs and return them to the owners. Anyone who has photographs of sites, people or events within the city during the 30s, 40s, and 50s is asked to call Dorothy Lauber, City of Greenbelt, 474-8000 or bring them to her at the Municipal Building.

The committee is also interested in receiving copies of the post card collection that depicts scenes of Greenbelt in the early days. Anyone who has any of the cards or knows where they can be obtained is also asked to contact Dorothy.

GREENBELTERS TO APPEAR IN RESTORATION COMEDY

Greenbelters Kathy Frye and Elaine Freifeld are currently featured in "The Beaux' Stratagem," an 18th-century Restoration comedy at Prince George's Community College. Former Greenbelt Elaine Kass directs this comic tale of two penniless young men determined to marry rich women.

The play is performed true to the period, with lavish costumes and a madrigal consort which entertains before, during, and after the show.

Final performances will be this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 3, 4 and 5, at 8 p.m. in the Queen Anne Auditorium on the P.G.C.C. Largo campus. Tickets are available at the door or by calling 322-0444.

SOCCKER NEWS

With the end of the season fast approaching several teams are in contention for first place final standings.

The 5-year-olds had a 5-0 victory over New Carrollton, with Adam Wheatley and TJ Trimble each scoring two goals, and Timmy Farley one. Greenbelt 8-year-olds beat New Carrollton 1-0 on a penalty kick by Mike Davis. Richard Clark and Andy Paul McKenney did their part to keep the other team scoreless. Greenbelt 2 won over a much improved Beltsville team 1-0, with Daniel Gomez scoring the only goal of the game and the first goal of his soccer career. Kevin Lynch, David Lehman and Miriam Hunanian played well in their positions to take control of the game.

The 10-year-old team held New Carrollton to a 0-0 tie. This was John Fiege's third straight shutout and he again proved himself a fast-moving and talented goalie. This team is undefeated and could take first place.

The 12-year-olds lost Saturday by allowing a goal to be scored in the last few minutes of their game. But David Krieger did score one goal for Greenbelt. Andrew Knoll and Joel Cahalan and Nick Jones put out an extra effort for their team. This team could also take first place.

Other Greenbelters in the 10-member cast (mostly Greenbelt Players) are Robert O'Malley, of University Square, and Marie Tousignant, of Olivewood Court.

A delicious catered dinner was served at noon on tables decorated with spring flowers. Special guests included City Manager James K. Giese and County Councilman Richard Castaldi, both of whom addressed the group. Castaldi presented club president Florence Holly with a proclamation in honor of the occasion. GARY HART

FOR PRESIDENT

Printed by Americans with Hart Inc. S&H Green Stamps

"If this Administration thinks education is expensive, wait until it finds out how much ignorance costs."

While public education has been strengthened by the Maryland Legislature, it has been systematically weakened by Reaganomic budget-cutting. Instead of preparing our children for the world of the future, the Reagan Administration is letting them fall further behind.

Gary Hart is a leader in the fight to modernize our schools and fund them adequately. In 1982 he introduced the American Defense Education Act, which provides new incentives to local school districts to expand mathematics, science, foreign languages and computer studies.

He fought vigorously to preserve the school lunch program and Title I programs for disadvantaged children.

Hart would increase funding of the student loan program and ensure that no deserving student is denied the chance for a college education.

"Our toughest international battles will pit mind against mind, not might against might."

American foreign policy must have three clear goals: To further our national security, promote our legitimate economic interests, and foster peace and democratic ideals.

Senator Hart has introduced legislation freezing U.S. troop strength in Central America unless an increase is approved by a joint resolution of Congress. As a result of his own tour of this war-torn area, he favors a regional solution to the conflicts there, based upon negotiations and democratic processes.

"A President must be prepared to place the national interest above special interests and the people must be confident that he will do so."

Gary Hart's record of public service has been marked by his independence. He has pledged to reject Political Action Committee contributions and he has stood by that pledge. He will not engage in backdoor campaign financing that flouts both the spirit and letter of Federal Election laws.

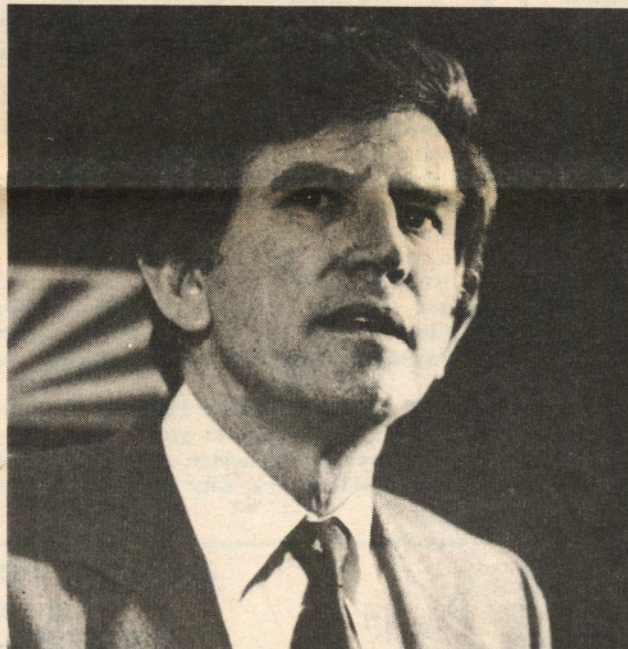

Instead, Gary Hart's campaign in Maryland is fueled by the enthusiasm of thousands of volunteers, many brand new to politics, who have devoted countless hours to his candidacy because of their strong belief in him.

"Every issue we face, every dream we have pales before the most urgent task of our time: Preventing nuclear war."

That's why Gary Hart led the Senate fight to stop the MX. That's why he wants to stop the arms race where it starts, by freezing the production of plutonium worldwide.

And that's why he has been a leader in the effort to prevent the production of new chemical weapons.

Senator Gary Hart served as a Congressional Advisor to the SALT II negotiations and attended the Geneva arms control talks. He supports negotiations with the Soviet Union toward a mutual and verifiable freeze on all nuclear weapons.

"Maryland's renewed commitment to preserve the Chesapeake Bay is the type of commitment we must make to protect our most treasured natural resources."

What happened to our national commitment to protect the environment? Our forests are on the auction block. Toxic wastes threaten to poison the water we drink, the air we breathe and the land on which we live.

Gary Hart represents a renewal of our national commitment to protect our environment. He was the first Member of Congress to call for banning landfill disposal of extremely hazardous waste. He introduced legislation expanding the Superfund program to clean up toxic waste dumps by imposing taxes on hazardous waste products.

As the Chair of the National Commission on Air Quality, he produced the first official recommendations for reducing acid rain in 1980. He led the forces in Congress trying to strengthen the Clean Air Act.

Gary Hart believes we must preserve our dwindling wilderness resources for the future. He sponsored the parts of the 1980 Alaska Lands Act which tripled the nation's wildlife refuge system.

PRIMARY ELECTION TO BE TUESDAY, MAY 8

the Energy, Environment and Natural Resources Policy Steering Committee of the National League of Cities, a member of the State of Maryland Air Quality Control Advisory Council and of the Governor's Task Force on Oil Price Overcharges. He is active in the Maryland Municipal League and also serves on the Prince Georges County Democratic Central Committee.

He is a past president and charter member of the Eleanor and Franklin Roosevelt Democratic Club, as well as a member of Greenbelt American Legion Post #136.

Two other delegate hopefuls - both members of Eleanor and Franklin Roosevelt Democratic Club - are Virginia Beauchamp of Westchester Park (not to be confused with News Review staff and board member of the same name) a Jackson supporter and Leonard Lucchi, pledged to Hart.

Of Maryland's 74 delegates, 42 will be selected on May 8. Another 14 at-large delegates will be selected by the State Central Committee on June 12. However, candidates must get 20% of the vote in the primary to win at-large seats.

The remaining 18 delegates will be chosen by the State Central Committee from among elected and party officials.

Registration

Democratic registration in Greenbelt exceeds that of the Republicans by almost 3 - 1, about the same margin as 1982. In 1976, 1978, and 1980 the margin was 3 - 1.

Some 6,130 Democrats and 2,160 Republicans are eligible to vote in the city in next Tuesday's primary.

Greenbelt's total registration in four precincts is 9,513. About 64.4% are Democrats, 22.7% Republicans and 12.9% Unaffiliated. The 1984 total registration is up 12.8% from that in 1980 and is 24.1% higher than 1982 figures.

Usually the turnout in a presidential primary is heavier than in off-year primary contests. In 1976, 51% of the registered Democrats and 39% of the Republicans voted in three precincts. In 1978, 40% of the eligible Democrats and 27% of the Republicans cast ballots in four precincts. (The new Precinct 13 includes the Greenbriar, Glen Oaks and Windsor Green developments located within the city's borders and several apartment developments outside the city limits.)

In the 1980 primary the Republicans cast more ballots - 41.9% of the eligible voters - respectively than the Democrats - 40% of their registered voters. However, the 1982 primary brought out 48% of Greenbelt's 4,993 Democrats and 30% of the 1,705 Republican voters.

Democrats account for most of the increase in the total county registration since 1982, when there were 227,735 eligible voters. Democrats now make up 70.3% of the current 267,264 eligible voters on the county election rolls, the Republicans represent 20.3% and the Unaffiliated 9.3%.

In the 5th Congressional Legislative District there are 215,434 registered voters. Democrats comprise 69.6%, Republicans 20.9% and Unaffiliated 9.5%.

SOS BENEFIT

Saturday, May 12, the Save Our Services (SOS) citizens committee will sponsor a fund-raising evening at the Greenbelt Cultural Arts Center's performance of "The Diary of Anne Frank."

The play will be followed by a reception, in an effort to defray some of the costs incurred by the lawyers who served "pro bono" (i.e., for free) as counsel in the legal effort to halt the Coop divestiture, explains Joe Isaacs, SOS chairman.

"Since they would not accept attorney's fees, the least we can do is offset some of those out-of-pocket expenses (over $350 in filing and xeroxing costs) spent by our three Greenbelt lawyers who worked so hard for us," he continues.

Members of the SOS committee will sell tickets to the May 12 performance in front of the Utopia Theater on Saturday, May 5, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tickets also can be obtained from Joe Isaacs (345-5671, evenings).

GHI NOTES

The regular rehab information will be held Monday, May 7 from 5 - 6:30 p.m. in the Board Room. Rehab Bulletin # 9 was delivered to members last week. Any masonry homeowner who has not received one should call the GHI hotline (474-6644).

Rehab subcontractors will be working on Saturdays until they make up the time lost due to weather conditions.

Fire & Rescue Review

by F/F April Walker

Each year we at the fire department treat many injuries caused by careless use of lawnmowers. These injuries can be greatly reduced by following some simple safety rules. 1) Never remove the safety guards from the mower, 2) Don't mow the lawn when the grass is wet because it is easy to slip and lose control of the mower, 3) Check the lawn for stones and other objects which could be flung out and hit someone (this is most important on rear bag mowers when the bag is not being used), 4) Remove the spark plug before doing any maintenance, 5) Use the proper equipment when filling mower with gas, 6) Make sure to wear shoes which completely cover feet (not sandals or flip-flops). Some lawnmower injuries are irreversible. By being safety conscious, injuries can be easily avoided.

three months of 1984 as compared to the same period in 1983. This decrease followed an even larger decrease of 12% in the overall crime rate in Jan.-Mar. 1983 over a similar period in 1982. Giese said that while the Greenbelt crime rate tends to be lower than other places in the Washington Metropolitan area, it is still higher than in most municipalities of its size. He also said that he preferred to see personnel recommendations based on programs relating to objectives to be accomplished rather than on population figures.

In addition to funds for two additional patrolmen, Giese's proposed budget contained modest increases in almost all items. Only the new equipment category included a major increase proposal for acquisition of patrol cars and equipment.

In addition to increased personnel, the FOP requested pay raises large enough to enable police members to recoup some of the buying power losses which, according to Sappington, they had suffered during the earlier period of high inflation. He also requested that the city increase its share of employee health insurance costs and consider paying for a portion of health benefit costs for members of the Department when they retire.

FOP requests in the area of police equipment included two additional moving radars, night vision equipment, a 4-wheel drive vehicle and a video camera for use in training and crime prevention activities.

In addition to monetary proposals, Giese's budget submission enunciated some "special objectives" for the next fiscal year. These included implementation of the National Standards Program for police departments with the goal of attaining national accreditation; achieving a written mutual aid agreement with Prince Georges County, which would provide authorization for the co-operation which now occurs on a less formal basis; expansion of crime prevention efforts; evaluation of requirements for more space for the Department, either in a new building or as part

CONSIDERING A CHANGE IN RESIDENCE?

There are three key elements to consider:

- A) Your needs: things you positively have to have.
- B) Your wants: things you'd like to have, but don't necessarily need.
- C) Your qualifications:
- 1) Your initial investment (cash to move in)
 - 2) Your total income (gross yearly income)
 - 3) Your debt service (total indebtedness)

I would like the opportunity to discuss with you how we can combine these three factors to assist you and your family in achieving your housing goals both within Greenbelt and the metropolitan area - of course with no obligation.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The Greenbelt RIDE-A-BIKE FOR THE RETARDED will be held on Sunday, May 6, 1984 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., with Sunday, May 20, 1984 set aside as rain date; and

WHEREAS, This annual event, which is coordinated by the Greenbelt Recreation Department with the Prince George's County Association for Retarded Citizens and cosponsored by the Greenbelt Jaycees, will again unite participants who will ride the prescribed route from the Greenbelt Youth Center through the Beltsville Agricultural Research Center and those who will support the riders with their pledges; and

WHEREAS, The funds raised by this joint community effort are urgently needed to provide community-based residential programs for our retarded citizens throughout the county, to provide information and support to the families of the retarded, to advocate the rights of all citizens who are retarded, and to provide the services needed to allow and assist them to live more independently in their own communities; and

WHEREAS, Our concern and awareness, and our help and understanding, are vital to make possible the necessary opportunities for all retarded persons to be trained so that they may develop their fullest potential and become contributing members of our communities to the maximum extent permitted by their retardation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gil Weidenfeld, Mayor of the City of Greenbelt, Maryland, by authority vested in me by the Council and the citizens of Greenbelt, do hereby issue this proclamation on the occasion of

and in realization of the fact that the problems of mental retardation require the concerted and combined efforts of all our citizens since they cannot be solved by the mentally retarded or their families; and to, therefore, urge all Greenbelt citizens, groups, organizations, and businesses to participate in this annual effort by actively taking part in the RIDE-A-BIKE FOR THE RETARDED or by pledging and contributing generously toward the success of this fund raising event.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Greenbelt, Maryland, to be affixed this 23rd day of April, 1984.

Mothers for Peace Meet Greenbelters

by Gail Drake

"Let's get to know each other" was the message brought by the International Delegation of Mothers who made two visits to Greenbelt during their two-week tour of U.S. cities. The women, all mothers concerned about establishing a more peaceful world for their children, came from Denmark, England, and the Soviet Union.

Two of the Russian mothers had a special opportunity to become better acquainted with Greenbelt when they toured Eleanor Roosevelt High School. They visited several classrooms including a Russian language class where they taught the students a song. The mothers were impressed with the facilities at Roosevelt, and said they were similar to those in the Soviet Union. Scott Powell, the tour guide for the high school visit, said the Russian mothers were especially interested in conditions for teachers and wondered if young Americans like the students they met at Roosevelt, believed the negative image portrayed of the Soviet Union.

The Russian women, together with a British and a Danish mother, returned to Greenbelt, at the invitation of the Grey Panthers, to address a public forum at the Greenbelt Library. They were welcomed to the city by Mayor Weidenfeld who said that Greenbelt was very receptive to giving peace a chance. The forum's lively question and answer period provided not only a means for enabling people's of different backgrounds to better understand each other, but also demonstrated the degree of mutual misunderstanding that makes such opportunities so important. When asked if the Soviet Union ever held symphonies, a Russian mother responded emphatically, "Yes! We are a very intellectual people!"

The audience seemed skeptical of the rosy Soviet foreign policy picture portrayed by the Russian women and demonstrated their valued freedom of speech by saying that most Americans feel the nuclear arms race is at least a two-player competition.

Esther Webb, organizer of the Greenbelt Grey Panther forum, was assured that the Soviet Women's Committee would actively work to promote Greenbelt's recent invitation to the Soviet city of Rezekne to become a "Sister City" with Greenbelt. During another public forum in the Washington area, the Russian mothers had suggested individual correspondence as a productive means for reducing the tensions that foster the nuclear arms race. They said they would publish letters they received in their news media. (One of the women was a magazine editor.)

All of the mothers pointed towards ignorance, and fear, as leading factors in promoting the growth of nuclear arsenals. They hoped that this tour could be one step toward reducing that ignorance. As the British "mum" stated, "We'll keep on, and on, and on in the hope that someday we'll make a better world for our children."

To pursue the theme of "getting to know each other," the Greenbelt-Rezekne Exchange Committee will host another forum on the Soviet Union in the future. To promote broader perspectives, the committee is looking for other Greenbelt organizations to co-sponsor the forum.
